Descriptive Title Book of Hours, Use of Augustinian Canons of Windesheim

Chapter

Text title Book of Hours

Abstract Completed for liturgical use of the Augustinian Canons of the Windesheim Chapter ca. 1450, this Book of Hours features eleven extant miniatures and nine historiated initials. The manuscript was illuminated by the Master of the Ghent Privileges and associates, possibly in Tournai. The first owner's association with Ghent as a cleric is evinced in the graded calendar, with possible visual references on fols. 1r and 82v. Along with occasional marginal additions, this Book of Hours also features some heraldry that attests to a cherished history.

Binding

The binding is not original.

Rebound with red-brown velvet in Belgium (?), late nineteenth century; spine rounded, backed at that time; endbands glued, with striped cloth around cord core; edges speckled with red; pastedowns and facing flyleaves made of purple-gray and white marbleized paper

Provenance

Made for a cleric in the 1450s, likely for the use of the Augustinian Canons of the Windesheim Chapter; illuminated possibly in Tournai by the Master of the Ghent Privileges and associates; calendar saints suggest an association with Ghent

Havet family of Tournai (?), late fifteenth century, suggested by an added armorial that appears similar to that of the Havet family (fol. 8r)

Sixteenth-century inscription in pale ink, "servio Alberto Godefrido Cluter..." (bottom margin, fol. 1r); date appears to be "1504" when viewed under ultraviolet light

Unknown owner numbered manuscript in modern pencil "N. 1200" on front flyleaf ii, r

Gruel and Engelmann, Paris, late nineteenth or early twentieth century, their bookplate inscribed with "No. 60" on front pastedown
