Descriptive Title Book of Hours Text title Book of Hours

Abstract This small Book of Hours was made at the turn of the sixteenth century. The illuminations are in the style of the Master of the Prayerbook of ca. 1500, active in Bruges. The name of the first owner is inscribed in the book in a prayer on fol. 241v, in which a man named Philip confesses himself a sinner and prays for his heart to be pure. The series of full-page miniatures opens with an interesting illumination of the Salvator Mundi that was a common theme in South Netherlandish illumination in this period. A comparable example, painted by the Master of the Prayerbook c. 1500, is found in the manuscript Vat. Ross. Lat. 94.

Binding The binding is not original.

Rebound in France at the beginning of the twentieth century with dark red velvet; sewn on five double cords or tawed thongs; eighteenth-century Flemish cast silver guards with foliate designs, catch and clasp centered at fore-edge; the clasp shows inside a monogram "AG" that was likely added later

Provenance

Created ca. 1200, possibly in Bruges, for original owner named Philip ("Philipum" inscribed on line 1 of fol. 214v)

Durey (?), signature found in one of the two prayers added early (fol. 275r)

Dated monogram "P.P.L. 1702" on back pastedown

London, Sotheby's, March 17, 1902, lot. no. 709; book sold to Leighton bookseller

Henry Walters bought the manuscript for $200, likely from Maggs. Bros. at uncertain date (inscription "pd $200" and the initials "HW" written in pencil on back pastedown)
