This document is a digital facsimile of a manuscript belonging to the Walters Art Museum, in Baltimore, Maryland, in the United States. It is one of a number of manuscripts that have been digitized as part of a project generously funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities, and by an anonymous donor to the Walters Art Museum. More details about the manuscripts at the Walters can be found by visiting The Walters Art Museum's website www.thewalters.org. For further information about this book, and online resources for Walters manuscripts, please contact us through the Walters Website by email, and ask for your message to be directed to the Department of Manuscripts.

Shelf mark	Walters Art Museum Ms. W.20
Descriptive Title	Juvenal's Satires
Text title	Juvenal's Satires and the Gloss of William of Conches Vernacular: Satirae
Author	As-written name: Iuuenalis Supplied name: Juvenal Known as: Iuuenalis, Decimus Iunius Known as: Iuuenalis, Decimus Junius
Author	Authority name: William, of Conches Supplied name: William of Conches
Abstract	This twelfth-century copy of Juvenal's Satires includes an early gloss on Books I and II, attributed to William of Conches, which was added early in the life of the manuscript. Additional early glosses on the text by different hands appear throughout.
Date	Last quarter of the 12th century CE
Origin	Northern France
Form	Book
Genre	Literary -- Poetry
Genre	Astrological
Language	The primary language in this manuscript is Latin.
Support material	Parchment Medium to thick goatskin showing significant handling, including smudges and soiling at the lower edges of folios, ink-blot stains, and the last lines of text on many folios appear faded from rubbing; all folios are of a faded yellow to gray color; fore-edges and lower margins have been trimmed on many folios, sometimes extensively (see fols. 7, 9, 11, 37, and 54); trimming appears to have been started on fol. 55 but halted and later mended by the Walters Art Museum's conservation laboratory; prickings visible on fore-edges of folios; occasional holes in parchment or evidence of flaws in the goatskin; edges of folios show traces of red pigment

Extent	Foliation: iii+55+iii
Collation	Formula: Quires 1-6: 8 (fols. 1-48); Quire 7: 8, lacking third folio (fols. 49-55) Catchwords: Catchwords appear in the lower-right corners of the last versos of each quire, written in text-hand with brown ink; quires are numbered in roman numerals at the bottom center of the last verso of each quire Comments:
Dimensions	14.5 cm wide by 23.0 cm high
Written surface	13.5 cm wide by 22.0 cm high

Binding	The binding is not original. Rebound in France in ca. 1600 with parchment over pasteboard; spine includes four ribs; "Iuve- / nalis" written in brown ink in the uppermost compartment of the spine
Provenance	Produced in the last quarter of the twelfth century, probably in northeastern France Perhaps owned by Saint-Pierre at Beauvais in the thirteenth century, based on the inscription "Officialis curie parisensis capitulo Sancti Petri" in the upper-left corner of fol. 55v; first three words of the same inscription (abbreviated) appear in the upper-right and bottom-left of fol. 55r and date to the fourteenth century, indicating continued ownership; inscription in same hand in upper-right corner of fol. 15r reads "Omnibus presentes litteras inspecturis uel audituris. Officialis curie parisensi Salutem in domino"; and at the top center of fol. 55v is the inscription "Officiali ambianensis episcopo salutem," written in a hand resembling that on fol. 15r Owned by Antoine Loisel (1539-1596), based on the signature on fol. 55v, written vertically at the center of the page Owned by the Le Peletier de Rosambo (or Rosambo) family in the eighteenth or early-nineteenth century, based on the first bookplate on the front pastedown Owned by the Duchess of Berry in the early-nineteenth century, based on the second bookplate on the front pastedown, which reads "Bibliothèque de Rosny," referring to the Château de Rosny at Seine-et-Oise Sold at Paris auction (lot no. 2419) by the Duchess of Berry on February 20, 1837, for 210 francs to Marie-Henry-Adolphe Bossange (1797-1862)

Acquired by Jean-Baptiste-Joseph Barrois of Lille between 1837 and 1849; the collection number 129 is written on a green leather label at the base of the spine, over which 192 was later written

Sold by Jean-Baptiste-Joseph Barrois of Lille at Paris auction in 1849 to the Earl of Ashburnham

Sold by the Earl of Ashburnham at Sotheby's auction in London (lot no. 317) on June 12, 1901, to Bernard Quaritch Ltd., a London bookseller

Purchased by Henry Walters from Bernard Quaritch Ltd. between 1902 and 1931

Acquisition

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a textured appearance with visible creases, wrinkles, and some minor discoloration or foxing. A small, faint red mark is visible near the center of the page. The right edge of the page is slightly irregular, suggesting it is part of a bound volume. There is no text or other markings on the page.
