Descriptive Title Psalter of Jernoul de Camphaing

Text title Psalter

Abstract This pocket-sized Biblical Psalter was produced for Jernoul de Camphaing in the third quarter of the thirteenth century. Although now misbound and missing some text and two images, the manuscript still retains eight lively historiated initials in a style typical of the region of Flanders that is now considered northeastern France. A small group of suffrages was added during the fourteenth century to originally blank folios at the end of the manuscript, a of sign of another generation of use.

Date Third quarter of the 13th century CE

Origin Northeast France (Flanders at the time)

Form Book

Genre Devotional

Language The primary language in this manuscript is Latin. The secondary language of this manuscript is French, Old (842-ca.1400).

Support material Parchment

Medium-weight, well-prepared parchment, darkened from use

Extent Foliation: i+227(+2 bis folios, and with one missed number)+i

Flyleaves are modern parchment; folios are numbered up to 227, but two folios were missed and did not receive numbers, and one folio number was skipped, so there are actually 228 folios; two sets of foliation present: earlier pencil foliation in lower right corners rectos (incorrect) and modern pencil

foliation upper right corners rectos (used here)

Collation Formula: Quire 1: 12, with first folio missing (fols. 1-11);

Quires 2-4: 12 (fols. 12-47); Quire 5: 12, with first and twelfth folios missing (fols. 48-57); Quires 6-17: 12 (fols. 58-199, including fols. 95bis and 169bis); Quire 18: 14, with

Generated: 2015-12-03 14:57 -05:00

the number "212" accidentally left out of the foliation (fols. 200-214); Quire 19: 12, with a thirteenth folio added (fols. 215-227)

215-227)
