Shelf mark	Walters Art Museum Ms. W.44
Descriptive Title	Psalter for Cistercian female supplicant
Text title	Psalter
Abstract	This biblical Psalter was created in French Flanders for a lady with Cistercian connections in the third quarter of the thirteenth century. Fourteenth-century additions for the use of a woman suggest that it continued to be used by female supplicants for some time after its creation. A prefatory cycle of ten full-page miniatures was also added in the fourteenth century, which complemented the original, and more traditional, series of ten historiated initials found within the Psalter.
Date	Third quarter of the 13th century CE
Origin	Northeast France (Flanders at the time)
Form	Book
Genre	Devotional
Language	The primary language in this manuscript is Latin.
